| Remarks: On 15 Aug, when the DCI's home telephone was disconnected through a misunderstanding regarding his move date, a C&amp;P representative assigned to CIA, was most helpful in slicing through the red tape and having the service restored in less than a half hour. Without his help, I fear the DCI might have been without phone service at Quarters D, perhaps until he moves Friday. Could we send a letter to C&amp;P expressing appreciation for his efforts? Addressee would be Mr. Samuel BonsakPresident, C&amp;P Telephone Co.1710 "H" St. NWWashington, D.C. 20006 |                |
